FLOOD CONTROL SOUGHT FOR BRAZOS VALLEY

T. S. HENDERSON NAMED ON BOARD FOR THIS DISTRICT
HOPES ARE OPTIMISTIC

Flood control and conservation and reclamation of valley lands in the Brazos river shed and the Little River area were discussed at a meeting held in Waco last week at which time this county was represented by T. S. Henderson and Representative Sam Hefley.

Mr. Henderson was named on the committee to further the plans for the control. The committee believes that considerable work will be done along this line in the near future and congressmen hope to interest the federal government in the matter.

If the plans go through power will be generated from dams and many thousands of rich lands saved from flood devastation.

HOLTS SUNDAY

More than 500 people attended the gymnastic exhibition of the Buckholts and Seaton societies of the Sokol union in Buckholts Sunday afternoon.

The celebration brought to Buckholts a greater gathering than has ever been known in the exhibitions covering a period of two years.

The address of Judge Gillis was a compliment to the fine work of the Sokol Union. He gave in detail the history of the Sokols, dating back to the old country and for many years a powerful and educational factor in the civic life of the countries of Europe.

John Stasa, president of the Buckholts Sokols was in Cameron Monday and expressed delight at the success of the entertainment and praised the address of Judge Gillis. "Please say to the readers of The Herald and the public that the Sokols appreciate the address made by Judge Gillis. They enjoyed his fine tribute to the organization and his praise for the work being done by the local union will aid us in our progress."

It is said that Judge Gillis will be invited to make an address in Houston at the big gathering of Sokol societies to be held there in the near future.

The entertainment Sunday in Buckholts netted the Sokols quite a nest sum to assist them in their work.

Father Apel Lays The First Brick in Wall of New St. Monica's

Here is shown Rev. Father Apel, minister of the parish laying the first brick in the wall of the new St. Monica's church which is to celebrate Sunday the laying of the corner stone. The venerable pastor looks ever bit the part of a finished workman as he stands with brick and trowel to spread the mortar and lay the small unit, many thousands of which are to be laid into the walls of the new structure. The brick laid by Father Apel will be a part of the walls, workmen being careful to preserve its place in the structure.

THE CARAVAN COMING FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 7

COLEMAN CHEVROLET COM-PANY ANNOUNCES DEMONSTRATION

A large fleet of Chevrolet demonstration trucks is scheduled to arrive here tomorrow according to Mr. Coleman of the Coleman Chevrolet Co. The caravan, which left Houston on August 15th, is in charge of Mr. L. P. Randall, Assistant Sales Manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company of Texas, whose office is in Houston.

The itinerary of the Chevrolet Truck Caravan includes visits to more than 150 South Texas cities and towns. At least two months will be required to complete the trip of approximately six thousand miles.

The trucks are equipped with bodies and trailers suitable for practically any business or hauling requirement. The School Bus included in the Caravan will be of particular interest at this time of the year, as many counties are providing transportation for school children in the rural districts. The bus will seat 33 children comfortably.

The firms whose truck bodies are shown in the Caravan are: The San Antonio Body Company, San Antonio, Texas; Martin Wagon Works, Lufkin, Texas; Edwards Wheel and Body Works, Dallas, Texas; Martin-Parry Body Corporation, Houston, Texas; Woodward Body Works, Austin, Texas; and the Hercules Body Corporation, Evansville, Indiana.

Parking space in front of the Coleman Chevrolet Company will be provided and everyone interested in truck transportation is invited to inspect the Caravan, which is scheduled to arrive in Cameron at 1:15 p. m., September 7th.

CORNER STONE LAYING ST MONICAS SUNDAY

BISHOP BYRNE OF GALVESTON TO OFFICIATE AND MANY ARE EXPECTED HERE

Solemn blessing of the corner stone for the new St. Monica's church will be held on Sunday afternoon September 4 at 4 p. m. with Rt. Rev. C. E. Byrne, Bishop of Galveston officiating.

The occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the new church edifice will bring to Cameron a distinguished gathering of Catholic laymen and parish members and the local church in anticipation of the magnitude of the event has prepared for the entertainment of the people.

The public is invited to attend the ceremonies and to hear Bishop Byrne in his address celebrating the beginning of the magnificent new structure for the Catholics of Cameron.

At 6 p. m. following the corner stone ceremonies the women of the parish will serve a supper to the public and only a reasonable charge will be made. Recently the women of the church served a supper and hundreds attended. The women of the church will prepare for a large gathering and many peoples of other faiths will join with the Catholics in the celebration of this event.

Rev. Father Apel, pastor of the parish, has been untiring in his efforts for the new building and his pastorate here has made him warm friendships among all classes of people and all faiths. The ceremonies Sunday will not only be a compliment to the faith and the industry of the parish membership but will proclaim for the pastor a worthy work, a monument to stand to his memory when he shall have been called away from his work.

The people of Cameron appreciating the construction of this magnificent new church, congratulate the pastor and his members on their success and will join in the celebration next Sunday when Bishop Byrne of Galveston begins the ceremonies incident to the laying of the corner stone.

The foundation for this building, begun nearly a month ago is completed and Father Apel last week laid the first brick in the walls of the new structure. The church will be completed this year, it is hoped.

The new church will be of brick and concrete construction and from the photograph accompanying this announcement it will be seen that it is to be an imposing structure, one of the finest in this section of Texas and a credit to Cameron and the progressive parish under the leadership of Rev. Geo. Apel who has been untiring in his efforts to promote the building plans since the burning of the old church several months ago which was destroyed in a fire originating from a defective flue.

The brick will be of dark brown or chocolate color and the building as designed by Diehlman and Co., of San Antonio will meet every need of the church in its services and will be a monument to better architecture in Cameron.

Plans for this new church have been announced from time to time and the church has received a large number of contributions from the people at large in Cameron and these funds together with the funds already in the treasury of the church will meet in a large way the needs for this construction. The erection of this church is a step forward in the progress of Cameron and the people here congratulate Rev. Father Apel and his able co-workers of the parish in bringing to maturity the plans for this fine new building.

The Odd Fellows held a meeting at San Gabriel Monday night.

Infantile Paralysis Situation

There has been probably four cases of Infantile Paralysis in Cameron during the past two months, two of which died and the other two are recovering nicely. Quarantine has been raised in both of these cases.

Now in regard to postponing the time for opening the schools, I have this to say, "That I do not consider the situation alarming, and do not advise postponing the time for opening school unless the time be extended to October 1, as this disease is most prevalent between June 1 and October 1, (it does occur, however, in every month in the year.)"

If school be postponed then I would advise closing the picture shows, churches and all places where children congregate; and they be kept strictly at home.

I will say further that the health of the city is exceptionally good at this time, and I repeat there is no cause for alarm except from the city sensationalists, whom we have always with us.

A. S. EPPERSON,
City Health Officer

25 APPLICATIONS FOR KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

LODGE HERE HAS RAPID

This unprecedented growth follows the enlistment campaign under local Knights assisted by Chas. Baughman of Austin, former grand chancellor for Texas.

Since the meeting Monday night six applications have been received making a total of 31. The plans call for an increase of 50 in the Cameron lodge.

Mr. Baughman will be here for another week and the Knights are looking forward with pleasure to the work of initiation this fall and winter.

The Cameron public schools will open here on Monday September 5, according to announcement made two weeks ago.

In this issue will be found a statement from Dr. A. S. Epperson, city health officer and this will be of interest to the people.

Mrs. Victoria Chafin, 69 years of age, who was injured when struck by a freight train at the crossing near the ice factory several weeks ago and who is being cared for in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Pat Gill, has had the following visitors: a sister, Mrs. A. ## SPEEDING UP SERVICE SUBJECT OF ADDRESS

MRS. MAUD BOLES SPEAKS AT DISTRICT TELEPHONE MEETING

Waco, Texas, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Maud Boles, chief operator for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Cameron, delivered one of the principal addresses before the district meeting of the Texas Independent Telephone Association here August 18. She told of the great improvement in speeding up toll service. Her talk, in part, follows:

"The characteristic of impatience in man has been rapidly growing along with the inventions of the past century. Perhaps the faster means of communication which have been devised are the result of this same impatience. Rapid transportation and communication have consumed the thought of many master minds in recent years, as is shown through the improvement of train service, telegraph service and mail service. Lindbergh was acclaimed a hero of our country because his trip across the Atlantic symbolized the possibility of our fastest means of travel, the airplane for transcontinental commercial use.

"Through our telephone experts we have been able to keep the lead in improving means of communication. You will recall that some four or five months in advance of Lindbergh's great achievement the telephone company, with its wonderful equipment, began speeding the human voice back and forth across the same ocean. This made it possible for Mr. Lindbergh after his landing in Paris to actually talk with his mother, who was anxiously waiting in her home for news of from him. It is not my purpose to discredit other improvements; my purpose is to call attention to the alertness of those responsible for the rapid improvement that is being made in the efficiency of telephone service.

"Perhaps nothing can be said to a greater aid to the present efficiency than the CLR method (combined line and recording.) This method has been a great factor in speeding up the toll service, as it eliminates practically fifty per cent of the steps taken by an operator to complete a call by the older methods, and has reduced the average time elapsed in completing this class of call forty per cent. When we stop to consider that seventy-five per cent of all our calls are handled by the CLR method, we can readily realize the great saving that is being made in circuit time. By properly utilizing the circuit time saved we can handle a much larger load with the quality of our service.

"Since our stock and trade is telephone service, which is for sale to the public, we must not, in discussing benefit derived by the telephone company in establishing the CLR method, lose sight of our patrons, but should reflect and look at the service from the subscriber's standpoint. We know from experience that the average person who places a long distance call accomplishes very little in his other interests from the time the call is placed until the time of its completion. Therefore, the time is a dead loss to him. If, by our improved method of operating, we reduce the completion time of all our calls forty per cent, we save the patron forty per cent of his waiting time. We can see that he has been materially benefited from a time saving standpoint in addition to the elimination of the unpleasantness of waiting unnecessarily.

"Since the establishment of the CLR operating system, I do not recall a single complaint due to holding the subscriber on the line. And very few cases are called to my attention where the subscriber refuses to hold the line by hanging up the receiver. It is almost a daily occasion for someone to call me over the telephone to express his appreciation for the quick service he had received on certain calls. Therefore, both from a company and patron standpoint, this method of handling long distance calls is very beneficial and appreciated.

"Under the CLR method when long distance receives a call she records the details and asks, 'Will you hold the line, please?' While the subscriber holds the line the operator attempts to complete the call, unless this would result in an unreasonably long wait at the telephone. If it is at once apparent that he would be held too long, it may be necessary to tell the patron that he will be called in a few minutes.

"As stated above the combined line and recording operating practice has been a great factor in speeding up telephone service. Its origin is not a surprise to those of us who have from time to time watched the rapid improvement in the service. We now pride ourselves on the improvement that has been made in the past, but, in my opinion, improvements to come will far excel those in the past. It is possible that in the near future we will complete calls to New York and San Francisco with the same speed that we now complete local calls in our larger exchanges."

BEWARE OF THE DEADLY DOTTED LINE

By W. R. MOREHOUSE

Public Relations Commission, American Bankers Association

WITHDRAWING the family's savings account at the bank where it is safe, and losing it through speculation is a serious matter. It may bring great hardship, especially to the mistress of the home. It may force great economies in household management or amount to actual privation. It may mean that the children will have to go to work before they complete their education. The loss of the family's accumulations may even result in physical breakdown on the part of the wife through worry over the loss of savings which she helped to accumulate at the sacrifice of home comforts, but was not consulted when it came to investing them. The making of investments by men who are heads of families and inexperienced in finance should not be undertaken without consulting her. But even if both agree the venture should be talked over with the local banker or information about it obtained from the National Better Business Bureau in New York, which serves without cost and purely in the public interest. If this is done a lot of trouble and quite likely many regrets and heartaches will be avoided.

W. R. MOREHOUSE

There is one point in the activities of the inexperienced investor where he should have above all a red-light stop signal to cause him to pause and investigate and that is just before he reaches the decision to "sign on the dotted line." Before you part with your savings in the bank by signing a contract placed before you by sharp promoters, stop, examine and investigate! It will pay to read the contract several times, even reading it aloud, all the while weighing every term. It will pay to be on guard against the deadly fine print usually incorporated in most contracts—so small that it strains your eyes and causes you to skim over it superficially. Do not sign blindfolded. It will pay well to take plenty of time to study the contract by yourself where all is quiet and you are free from the personal influence of the persuasive promoter, for to sign without the calmest consideration may spell your Waterloo financially.

Unless dealing with a responsible firm or individual, never sign on the dotted line. If in the least doubt, don't sign. Never sign on verbal assurances that you are fully protected. Terms stated orally but not incorporated in a contract are not binding. Glowing promises, wild exaggerations and gross misstatements of facts are seldom reduced to writing or made in the presence of your witnesses. Your failure to read and to understand a contract before signing is not a legal excuse. When you sign a contract you proclaim that you agree with its terms and will abide by and endeavor to carry them out.

Don't sign just because some high-pressure salesman tells you that you are a wonder, or that you show good judgment, or that you have a lot of sense. Sign only when you are fully convinced that your interests are fully protected.

Prominent Men Used as Scenery
A number of slick promoters recently organized in a certain city an "automobile club" with the assurance

Governors was organized with the names of prominent local citizens, among them two eminent judges. No sooner was the organization of the board complete than the promoters, armed with the endorsement of these outstanding men, went forth to reap a great harvest by selling memberships. They got the members—but the building of the garages remained an idle dream.

When the members of the Board of Governors were later interviewed as to how they came to consent to the use of their names they stated that they thought the additional storage facilities were needed in the downtown district and they signed up without looking into the proposition carefully. Imagine their chagrin when told that a reading of the by-laws of the organization showed that the Board of Governors had no powers but had been used merely as scenery in order to sell memberships in a fake proposition!

Because these prominent citizens were careless with their names and failed to read and to investigate the enterprise, hundreds of business men bought memberships only to lose their money. Signing without reading is about the most dangerous act of financial carelessness that can be committed.

Help Kidneys By Drinking More Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent, lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

MAYOR HAS PROBLEM TO ENFORCE SPEED LAW

SPEED ORDINANCE CONFORMS
TO STATE BUT NO UNIFORMS FOR POLICE

Cameron police will have to wear uniforms of the approved color to enforce the speeding laws, so says a ruling of the Attorney General. Mayor Davis says the speed ordinances conform to the state statutes but no officer here has a uniform that meets the specifications. Until such time as the council takes notice of the situation the local officers are powerless:

Austin, Aug. 27.—City and town speeding ordinances varying from the state law as to rate of speed and amount of fine can not be enforced legally, and all officers whether of the city or county, who make speeding arrests, must wear the dark grey uniforms and diamond shaped badges prescribed in the new state law, the Attorney General's Department ruled Saturday.

The opinion, prepared by Assistant Attorney General Paul D. Page Jr., and approved by Attorney General Claude Pollard in conference with his assistants, was to James J. Collins, Dallas city attorney, and was designed also to answer numerous questions raised throughout the State as to the intent and effect of the law passed by the Fortieth Legislature strictly regulating speeding arrests.

20 Miles An Hour

Penal code of the State fixes speed limit in the city and towns at 20 miles an hour, and prescribes a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $200, and any city ordinance not a "reaffirmance" of these provisions is invalid, regardless of the kind of uniform the speed officer wears, the opinion said.

No reason was found to except city officers from the new law's provision that "all officers" making speeding arrests must wear a cap, dark gray uniform and a diamond shaped badge.

"The act was designed to prevent the abuse of authority, not by any particular group of officers but by all officers authorized by the laws of this State to make arrests for violation of the speeding laws," the opinion said, declaring that "the facts which led up to the passage of this act are widely known."

"The municipalities of this State are parts of the State. Many more arrests for speeding probably are made within the jurisdiction of cities and towns than are made upon public highways outside of such jurisdiction."

State Uniform

"There was a further and very a cogent reason for the provision as to a particular uniform to be worn by the officer making arrests for speeding. It was the purpose of this provision to prescribe a means, that is, the wearing of the uniform described, by which a citizen of this State in whatever portion of the State he might be, could determine instantly whether a man appearing before him was attempting to enforce or break the law. It may be responded that certain cities uniform their traffic officers in a distinctive manner. This of course is true, but there is no law other than House Bill 346 (the one requiring a gray uniform) which makes this obligatory, and in our smaller towns it is emphatically not done. The advantages of a distinctive uniform to be worn throughout the State are too numerous to be recounted here, but it is amply evident that these were considered by the Legislature when it passed the act.

"The Act, when it wipes out the witness and commitment fees, uses the language, 'no sheriff, constable, marshal, policeman, traffic officer, or other officer.' It is impossible to argue that this language does not include the officers of cities and towns, and it is not reasonable to believe that this provision was limited to officers making arrests for violation of the statutes of this state. The provision seeking to prevent entrapment of persons suspected of violating the speed laws applies in its terms to 'any highway officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, marshal, policeman or any other officer of this State, or political division thereof.' The same reason which applies to the fee provision then applies to this provision.

Money Not Considered

"It has been stated that the expense to which the towns and cities of this State would be put by complying with the terms of this act constitutes an argument against the application of the act to such towns and cities. In the first place, the Legislature is empowered to pass such an act irrespective of the expense involved. The Legislature has undoubtedly considered that the safety of the men and women traversing the highways of this state is of sufficient importance to justify the outlay of money here involved.

"Regarding city ordinances with speed limits and fines divergent from provision of the state law," the opinion said, "it is clear that a municipal ordinance that conflicts with a general law of the state is void. This has been distinctly held with particular reference to speeding laws by the courts of this State."

The opinion then cited the opinion by Presiding Justice Morrow in the Exparte Mooney case from San Antonio. He said: "in its character, the city of San Antonio is vested with the authority to control the use of the streets and highways within the city. This power of course is to be exerted in a manner not to bring it in conflict with the State law upon the subject."

Cheaper MILES --- Safer MILES

Smoother MILES--Faster MILES

With the UNPARALLELED Dayton STABILIZED Balloons!

To make the FINEST Tire, and the SAFEST Tire, and yet to make a ride-easy, shock-absorbing tire was the perplexing problem presented to the Dayton factory. To build a tire that would wear—that would stand the gaff of hard driving—that would stack up mileage records, and yet would render that feeling of "floating over the bumps," was the MASTERPIECE evolved by DAYTON in the Red Stripe Stabilized Balloons and the Low Air Pressure Thorobred Cords. Your appreciation of this wonderfully in-built comfort in a Dayton increases as your trips become longer, or the roads grow rougher. Its more pliable sidewall construction, and its Extra Cushion strips of gum rubber beneath the tread, and its superior workmanship throughout, answers your demands for EASIER RIDING.

RUINS OF OLD ST. MONICA'S

Mother! It's Cruel to "Physic"
Your Child

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

Doomed Man Asks Body To Be Given To Jurors Who Convicted

A. V. Millikin, convicted of killing a woman in San Antonio and condemned to electrocution at Huntsville Sept. 22 for the crime, is bitter toward the 12 men who sentenced him. In a number of letters he has written The Press concerning his observations on life and approaching death. Millikin has steered away from a feeling of hatred for mankind. His most scathing indictment against humanity previously has been that "men do not understand each other."

Monday, however he revealed a new emotion in his character, an emotion aggravated no doubt by the fact that Sept. 22 grows nearer and nearer.

Gloomy Death House

The gloom that envelops the death house at Huntsville becomes more and more oppressive for the man who is about to die.

He writes:

"I have been asked what my last wish will be. I have stated before that I would like to be married before I die but this 'last wish' I take to mean a wish for execution after my electrocution."

"First I was convicted on evidence that was purely circumstantial. I am innocent of the crime for which I was convicted."

"For this reason—because the evidence was circumstantial—I have a final wish many people probably will think queer."

"It is this:

If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts

Says Backache Often Means You
Have Not Been Drinking
Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

"After they have burned me in the state's hot chair I would like for my body to be cut into 12 pieces. Each piece should be pickled in alcohol in separate containers."

"Then I would send a piece to each of the 12 persons who sat on the jury that sent me to the chair. Just as souvenirs."

Two Others Doomed

"Two more men here are to be executed before I meet death. If their bodies met the same disposition wouldn't 36 Texans be surprised when they received packages containing parts of the bodies of men they killed? Leaving this grim subject behind with the same suddenness with which grave that waits for him."

he started it, Millikin writes of the "Because I am an innocent man I would like to think that (the pickling plan of course being impossible) my body would rest somewhere beside in the prison cemetery."

"Maybe other innocent men sleep under the sod here but I would like to spend my time in a grave removed from the penitentiary.

"Why?"

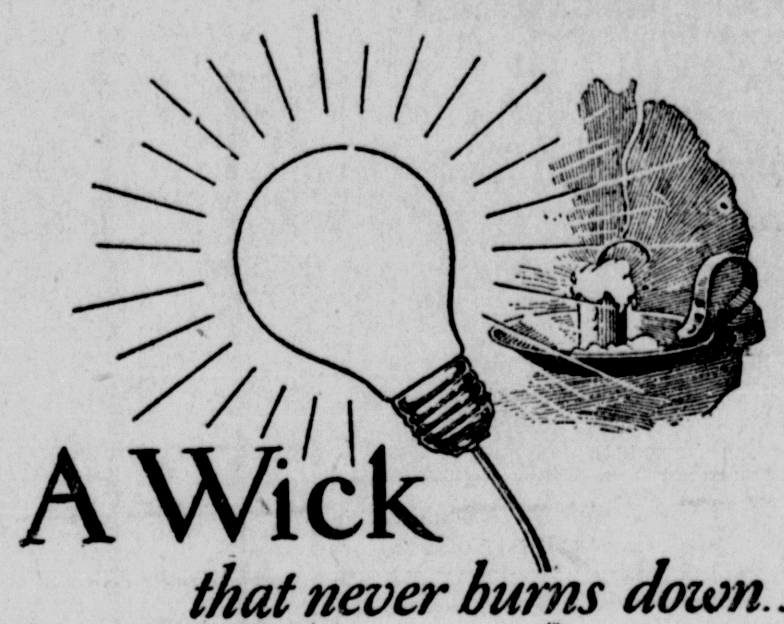

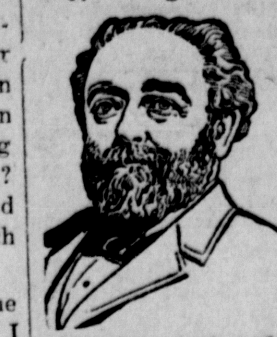

"Because I am innocent."

Black-Draught was recommended to Mrs. Reathia Edmondson, of Williamson, N. Car., by her father-in-law. She says:

"Shortly after I became a bride, I had a spell of indigestion, and my father-in-law told me to take a dose of Black-Draught. I had never heard of it before, but I tried it, and got such quick relief, I have turned to it ever since."

"About three years ago, I began having acute attacks of indigestion, real frequently. I would feel severe pains through the lower part of my body, and they were accompanied by bad gas pains. I took a systematic course of Black-Draught, and soon began to feel better. The acute attacks disappeared."

LITTLE JULIUS SNEEZER

MISS LOUISE DENSON BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. JAMES EBER FLINN IN PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING THURSDAY AUG. 25TH

On Thursday evening August 25, 1927 at 7 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Cameron, Miss Louise Denson and Mr. James Eber Flinn were married, the ceremonies beautifully appointed in solemn, colorful dignity, being witnessed by hundreds of friends and acquaintances who came for the happy culmination of this romance which began in sweetheart days of school time and links the lives of two of Cameron's most popular and accomplished young people.

The impressive ring ceremony was said by Rev. Glen Flinn, Methodist minister of Georgetown, uncle of the groom, assisted by Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The bride's choice of colors, hues of the rainbow, were carried out in elaborate decorations with vari colored flowers banking the altar and spread in profusion over the general scheme which represented in miniature an old fashioned garden with its rose and fern paths brilliantly lighted with glowing tapers. Silk white ribbons laced the path forming a passage to the decorated walls of the garden which presented vines with queen's crown and clematis making a blanket of green, toning with the elaborate scheme. At the entrance of the path where the ceremony was said, stood on each side large pedestal baskets of wicker filled with pink rosebuds. Fern banks offered their carpet of green to enhance the color scheme.

Mrs. C. W. Bradbury gave as violin solo Liszt's "Liebestraume." Miss Louise Adams standing in the old fashioned garden sang "When You Are Truly Mine, Sweetheart," and "Sweetest Story Ever Told," with Miss Helen Flinn, sister of the groom, accompanist.

A refrain from Mendelssohn was played by Miss Flinn as processional. As this was being played Mrs. Clifton Jenness, brides matron and Miss Katherine Flinn, brides maid, came to the garden for their appointed places at the altar sides. Mr. Glenn Flinn and Mr. Leland Denson, brother of the groom and brother of the bride, respectively, took their places of honor near the altar. The ministers then came and stood at the altar for the ceremony. As the strains of the processional pealed forth with soft sweetness, Mrs. Roy Baskin, matron of honor, came to the altar, preceded by Master Grady Baskin, three years old, her son, as ring bearer. Miss Bess Wiley, maid of honor, preceded by Little Miss Madelin Tucker, flower girl, came to complete the complement at the altar.

The groom accompanied by his brother, Mr. Fontaine Flinn came to the altar. The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father, Dr. John L.

Denson who gave her in marriage.

During the impressive ceremony Miss Helen Flinn played softly. "O Promise Me." The recessional was a refrain from Lohengrin.

The costumes worn by the maids and matrons of honor featured colonial style in rainbow colors being close fitting frocks with bouffant skirts, ankle length, using the combination of organdy and taffeta. Mrs. Bradbury wore two shades of lavender with a corsage of pink columbia roses. Mrs. Clifton Jenness wore leaf green, Miss Katherine Flinn wore two shades of rose pink; Miss Bess Wiley, maid of honor was in bright blue; Mrs. Roy Baskin wore a pale yellow organdy combined with net; Miss Louise Adams wore a deep shade of yellow. Each of the maids and matrons carried for their bouquets pink columbia roses with streamers of pink ribbons in arm sheath effect.

Little Madelin Tucker wore a pink crepe, hand painted frock, and Little Grady Baskin was in white linen as were the groom, best man, ushers and ministers.

The bride wore a beautiful white satin frock with tulle ruffles, edged with satin ribbon, with full length veil in cap effect bound with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was white bride's roses and lilies of the valley with shower. Her traveling suit was a French model in a new shade of rose, with trimmings of silver and brown and with a new fall hat and shoes of brown and all accessories to match.

Many beautiful and costly gifts were presented the bride and groom.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for Dallas by way of Waco. Mr. and Mrs. Flinn will reside in Cameron. Mr. Flinn is engaged in the cotton and insurance business.

The congratulations of their many friends are extended along with that of The Herald for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

Third place was won by "Bluebonnet Song," submitted by Mrs. Tom Bartlett of Marlin.

"Texas All Hail," was sung by Miss Gail Hamilton; "Texas, the Great" by Mrs. T. M. Bishop; and both "Grand Old Friendly Texas" and "Bluebonnet Song" by Miss Ollie Teeling of Marlin. All entries were played over for the judges by Mrs. Bert Perry.

Judges for the contest were Miss Cora Ferguson of Groesbeck, E. T. Genheimer, Mrs. Nick Goodrich of Marlin, Eloise Rogers of Cameron, and Mrs. Lester May of Waco, who was chairman of judges.

The winning songs will be submitted to the state legislature and then to the state fair at Dallas to enter the finals of the different districts of the state. A $1000 prize will be awarded the winner.

Lawn Party

Honoring their sister, Miss Adelaide Bickett of Dallas, Misses Marthan and Winifred Bickett entertained with a lawn party on Thursday evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bickett. After the guests had arrived an old fashioned picnic lunch was spread on the lawn. The lunch consisted of fried chicken rolls, sandwiches, salads, pickles, cakes, pies and soda water. After everyone had eaten their fill the tables were removed and games were played on the lawn. Punch was served during the evening. At a late hour the guests departed having enjoyed a wonderful evening. Misses Marthan and Winifred were assisted in entertaining by their mother, Mrs. A. W. Bickett.

Out of town guests to enjoy the party were: the honoree, Miss Adelaide Bickett of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bullock of San Angelo and Mr. George Black of Dallas.

COUNTY TEACHERS WILL MEET SEPTEMBER 29-30

INSTITUTE TO CONVEINE IN CAMERON AND BIG ATTENDANCE EXPECTED

Teachers Institute for Milam County will be held in Cameron, Texas on September 29th and 30th. It will convene at eight o'clock September 29 at the Yoe High School building. Although at that time, the Cameron, Rockdale and Thorndale schools will have been open several weeks, these large schools will join the rural teachers in making this a most profitable meeting.

The Four-County-Institute which has been conducted so successfully for a number of years in Belton has been discontinued. This was probably the best Institute in the State but it has served its purpose. Teachers today are receiving about the same work in teachers' colleges, and the Institute week was a repetition of help and instruction given in those institutions.

Other meetings will be held at various times through the school year. Teachers will be paid for the two days and attendance is obligatory.

Dean W. S. Allen of Baylor University is to deliver the inspirational addresses and the people of Milam County should avail themselves of this opportunity to hear his messages.

Mrs. S. M. N. Marrs, National Vice President of Women's Clubs, will talk to the teachers of the work being done by Parent-Teacher organizations throughout the State. Mrs. Marrs is a gifted speaker and her broad, common sense views of problems affecting the home will be interestingly discussed.

Time will be given the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Minnie Bartholomew and County Agent, George Banzhaf, to explain how their efforts must be joined to those put forth by the teachers in order that the best results may be accomplished.

W. L. Hughes, Professor of Rural Education at A. & M. College will meet with the teachers of the one and two teacher schools and he has plans that will prove especially helpful to those teachers.

One Can't Feel Well When Kidneys Act Sluggishly.

THE part played by the kidneys and their importance to bodily health should be clearly understood. Sluggish kidneys do not thoroughly cleanse the blood of poisonous wastes. Such impurities are apt to make one dull, tired and achy with often a nagging headache, drowsy headaches and dizziness. A common warning of imperfect kidney action is scanty or burning excretions. ## Miss Moore Honored

On last Saturday afternoon Miss Lillie Kate Beckerman entertained with a very pretty party for her guest, Miss Vera Lee Moore. The rooms of the home were made colorful and inviting by the use of potted ferns and baskets of queen's crown. Three tables were arranged for bridge with covers of pink and green. The score pads and tally cards carried the idea of late summer with colors of pink and green used attractively on each. After several games pink luncheon covers and napkins were used on the tables for serving the following luncheon: fruit salad, meat sandwiches, potatoe chips, olives, crackers and fruit punch. In the centers of the tables were little novelties made to represent a corsage. The bottom was a can of talcum covered with silver paper and the tops were a bouquet of flowers. The centers of each was a work box article such as needle, thread, etc. These were given in cuts. Those enjoying this lovely party were: Misses Bess Du Bois, Clara Thomas, Eloise Rogers, Sallie Coleman, Agnes Henderson, Pauline Green and Dallie Young, and Mesdames Clifton Jenness, Vernon Roberts, Arthur Baskin Jr., and Eugene Green and the honoree, Miss Moore. Miss Lillie Kate presented Miss Moore with two hand embroidered guest towels.

I tried to make the most of what little strength I had left, but I could find nothing to start me on the road to health again until, one day, I decided to try Cardui. ## To The Members of CAMERON MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE ASSOCIATION And General Public

It has come to the attention of the Cameron Mutual Life Insurance Association that this Company is being misrepresented in some sections by agents for other companies and this has resulted in misunderstandings on the part of the public as well as policy holders in this company.

Statements have been made that are misleading and erroneous and we want the public at large and the policy holders in the Cameron Mutual Life Insurance Association to understand that this company has no connection with any other company in Cameron; that it was organized before any other company was organized here and has never had anything to do with any other company.

Some seem to believe that because other mutual companies are located in Cameron that they are known as the "Cameron Mutual" but this is an error. There is only one Cameron Mutual Life Insurance Association and that is the original company and its policies are issued under Adult Class No. 1 and separate and distinct from any other class or policy issued by this company and should not be confused with other companies doing business here.

It is unfair and unjust to our large family of satisfied policy holders to judge this company which has always been conducted without complaint, by the standards of others. Do not be misled, nor believe any statement made by paid agents of others, for this company has a record without reproach.

We respectfully call your attention to the following facts:

The Cameron Mutual Life Insurance Association was organized on April 12, 1922, nearly six years ago and during this period of satisfactory protection to its policy holders all beneficiaries have been paid $1000 except the first two claims and they were paid as follows: No. 1 $258; No. 2, $716. After the 1000 mark was reached all claims have been paid to full and face value of the policy of $1000.

There has been paid out to-date the grand total of $46,974 for death claims and $800 for accident claims under the Cameron Mutual Adult Policy No. 1 and when these sums are added a grand total of $47,774 is shown to have been paid to-date.

These claims have all been paid promptly on proof of death and without suit or attorney's fees of any kind. This record is one in which we take pride, and we feel sure that because other companies are located here they will no longer be confused with the original and only Cameron Mutual. Others are known by other names.

We respectfully call your attention further to the fact that some agents now attempting to sell insurance for others are telling that we will not pay accident claims accruing under other policies issued by this company but which are separate from the Cameron Mutual Adult No. 1. In view of this fact we wish to say that no just accident or sick benefit claim has failed to be paid promptly and we gladly give herewith names and addresses of those to whom claims have been paid.

SICK AND ACCIDENT CLAIMS PAID

G. M. Rutland, Cameron	$25.00
Jno. Janko, Somerville	$50.00
R. H. Stanley, Somerville	$25.00
Mrs. E. L. Zimmermann, Bryan	$50.00
Ed. L. Wiederhold, Deanneville	$75.00

These claims were paid promptly and without suit or legal proceedings of any kind. These men hold policies in our Business Men's Class which is separate from all other classes.

We have the following classes in addition to the Cameron Mutual Adult Class No. 1 which was organized on April 12, 1922:

Business Men's Class
Adult Class No. 2
Senior Class
Children's Class

Each class is separate from the other and each takes care of its own affairs.

We have never given away this insurance because we have never had to resort to that method of selling. Our policies have always sold on merit because we live up to every agreement and pay promptly all claims and without litigation of any kind.

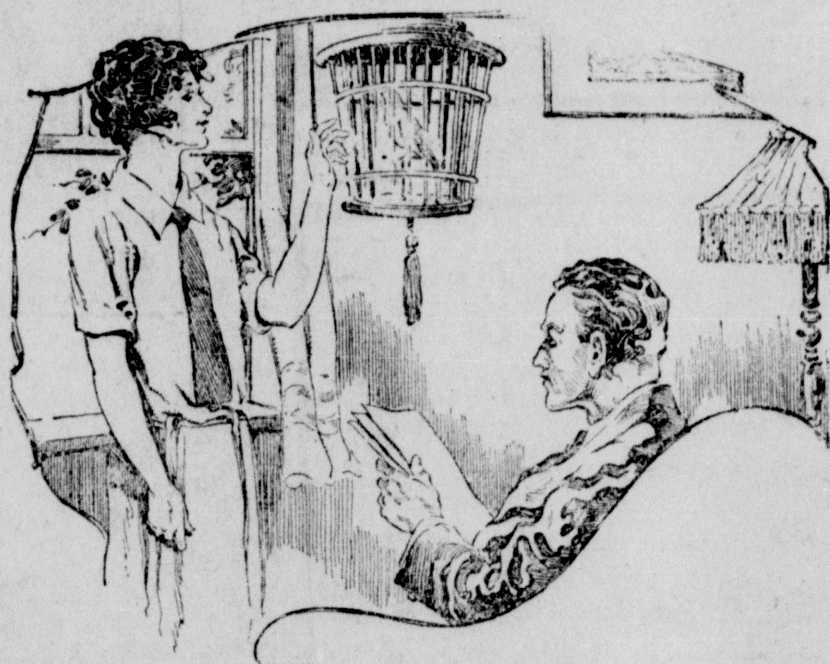

We regret the necessity for making this statement but in justice to our large groups of policy holders who have this fine protection at the lowest possible cost, we feel that this will prevent any misunderstanding in the future and no attention will be paid to the statements of others.

Our agents will call on you and we ask that you give them your application. Do not wait until it is too late to give your family and loved ones this needed protection.

Thanking you, we are,

Very Respectfully,
C. W. L. SCHAEGER,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Here is shown Rev. Father Apel, minister of the parish laying the first brick in the wall of the new St. Monica's church which is to celebrate Sunday the laying of the corner stone. The venerable pastor looks ever bit the part of a finished workman as he stands with brick and trowel to spread the mortar and lay the small unit, many thousands of which are to be laid into the walls of the new structure. The brick laid by Father Apel will be a part of the walls, workmen being careful to preserve its place in the structure.
